

Little Tips and Tricks!

Sharing Knowledge that Counts!

Pam Little, CPA

March 2019

Quick Little Tax Tip! Pay CRA on Time

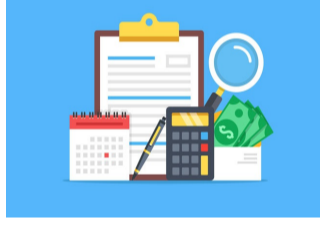

Sole Proprietorship or Corporation. Which is Right for Your Business?

When starting a business, one of the first decisions you have to make is how to register your business. The two most common options are a sole proprietorship and corporation. And the choice you make will determine how you manage the business. This includes everything from legal implications to tax filing. Read more...

In the News...

How to Claim Expenses as an Employee

It is very well known that businesses can deduct any expense incurred in the course of gaining income. But did you know that under certain criteria, an employee can deduct certain work-related expenses? Read more...

The TFSA vs. RRSP. Which one's better?

What's a better choice for an income tax shelter - a TFSA or an RRSP? Well the clear answer is: It depends. Both the plans have unique tax benefits depending on the income level and financial goals of an individual. Read more...

Getting ready for tax time? Use this handy checklist.

Tax season is upon us! Now that it's time to prepare your personal tax return, it's very easy to forget a detail or two, which as we all know, can pose significant problems and delay tax refunds. This handy checklist might help you stay on track. Read more...

"A budget is telling your money where to go instead of wondering where it went."

- Dave Ramsey

Tax Tip

Canadians must claim income from all other countries.

Pam Little is a Chartered Professional Accountant with over 20 years of experience. She helps small and mid-sized businesses manage their revenue and expense accounts and maximize tax deductions. To book a consultation contact Pam Little, CPA at pam@pamlittlecpa.com or call 416-268-1605. Website: www.pamlittlecpa.com

LinkedIn

Facebook

Email