

Little Tips and Tricks!

Sharing Knowledge that Counts!

Pam Little, CPA

May 2019

We've Got a New Office!

Looking for Office Space?

I have 3 offices to sublet which includes a boardroom, meeting room, and kitchenette. Contact me at pam@pamlittlecpa.com if you are interested in renting office space.

Smart Guidelines for Hiring Your First Employee

When your business grows to the point of requiring your first employee, it's an important step. As a business owner, having help will enable you to increase productivity and move more rapidly toward your goals. While these may be exciting times, it is important to proceed carefully in order to avoid future setbacks. Read more...

In the News...

The best and worst cities in Canada for property taxes

Toronto and nearby cities take the cake, with Hamilton leading the country at $6,939.59 for an average-priced home. That's the result of the massive run-up in southern Ontario house prices over the past few years. Read more...

How you can (legitimately) pay less capital gains tax

When you sell an asset for more than you paid for it, you have a capital gain and owe taxes on that gain. If you understand some basic facts, you can appreciate when and where to use legitimate strategies to minimize the tax owed. Read more...

Taxes, an Integral part of retirement planning

With average life expectancy increasing, most Canadians can expect to have a retirement that lasts 20 or 30 years. A lot can happen during those two or three decades, which is why retirement planning is so important. Read more...

"If you want to know the value of money, try to borrow some."

- Benjamin Franklin

Life is like Accounting: Everything must be in balance.

Pam Little is a Chartered Professional Accountant with over 20 years of experience. She helps small and mid-sized businesses manage their revenue and expense accounts and maximize tax deductions. To book a consultation contact Pam Little, CPA at pam@pamlittlecpa.com or call 416-268-1605.

Website: www.pamlittlecpa.com

LinkedIn

Facebook

Email